

Franco TAGLIARO, born in Verona on June 8, 1952 Professor of Forensic Medicine at the University of Verona • Head of the Section of Legal Medicine, Department of Diagnostics and Public Health • Head of the Unit of Legal Medicine, University Hospital, Verona Teaching - 2003-present, holder of the Course of Legal Medicine, School of Medicine - 2003-2012, coordinator of the PhD Program in Forensic Medicine and Science, - 2013, Director of the PhD School in Transitional Biomedical Sciences, - since 2013, coordinator of the PhD in Nanoscience and Advanced Technologies, - since 2015 Director of the School of Specialization in Legal Medicine. Teaching and research abroad - 1995-2005, visiting professor at the University of Alabama at Birmingham, USA - 2006-present, "professor on ad hoc contract" at the University of New Haven, CT, USA - from April 2017, scientific consultant at the Pharmacokinetics and Metabolomics Laboratory, IM Sechenov University, Moscow, Russia. Collaboration with Scientific Journals - 1998-2008, member of the editorial board of "Journal of Chromatography B", now of "Forensic Science International", "Forensic Science Journal" and "Italian Journal of Legal Medicine" co-editor of "Bulletin for Pharmacodynamics and Alcoholism" and International Consulting Editor of "Medicine Science and The Law". Acknowledgments • Ad hoc consultant of the United Nations Interregional Crime and Justice Research Institute, Rome, 1992-93. • Ad hoc consultant of the UNDCP (United Nations International Drug Control Program, Vienna) for capillary electrophoresis. • Since 2016, Member of the International Panel of Forensic Experts of UNODC, United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime, Vienna. Publications • Over 200 articles in extenso in international or national journals and books with international and national publisher • In April 2018 his H index was = 34